Forget Siri, Text Milton!

Got a question and a cell phone? Text your librarian at (410) 692-8874, and we'll send you an answer right back! Text-a-librarian is an anonymous service, standard rates apply.

Give Old Pens & Markers New Life

Instead of throwing out your used pens, pencils, markers and highlighters, you can now recycle them in a marked box in the M-level copy room. Waste is then made into new consumer products like park benches or faux lumber. Plus for every item collected, the Hopkins Office of Sustainability receives $0.02 towards incentive programs. Sweet!

Copy Card Price Increase

The price of printouts is not changing, but if you're buying a new copy or print card, it will cost you an extra $0.25 this semester. Affiliates can keep costs down by loading money on their J-Cards free of charge.

And if you're being really frugal, choose PDFCreator as your printer to make a PDF instead of printing.

Work in Progress: The BLC

Did you know that the Brody Learning Commons is slated to open NEXT FALL?? Keep tabs on the construction on our blog, <http://blc.library.jhu.edu>.
