

Law Notes

Human Search Engines

Welcome, or welcome back, to Hopkins, and welcome to the Eisenhower Library! Did you know you have your very own librarian who's a specialist in your field of study? We provide reference help and research consultations, build the library's collection in our respective subject areas, and can help you learn to use the library and its resources most effectively.

Stop by the Information Desk on M-Level or check out our website at www.library.jhu.edu to find out who your librarian is.

FLUSH WITH IDEAS?

- Send your ideas for Lav Notes topics to asklib@jhu.edu. If your idea or question is used, we'll send you a Café Q gift certificate.
- Lav Notes is an occasional publication of Research Services & Collections, Sheridan Libraries, Johns Hopkins University.

New and Improved

Wireless access is now available virtually everywhere inside the Eisenhower Library! Get instructions at the Information Desk for configuring your laptop.

We just got brand new PCs! They have USB ports in the front of the CPU so you can now save files to your flash drive or to diskettes.

Bibliographies Made Easy

You're going to love this! All JHU students, faculty, and staff can now use RefWorks – a powerful, web-based citation manager.

- Organize your research
- Include citations while you write your paper
- Build a bibliography in a variety of formats
- Import references from many data sources
- Create bibliographies in different document formats (Word, RTF, HTML, etc.)

Access your personal account from any computer connected to the internet.

Log on to RefWorks with your JHED information at <https://portal.johnshopkins.edu/refworks>