

Law Notes

Longer Loans for Movies

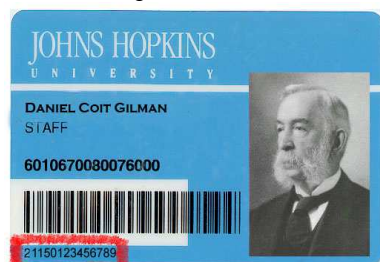

New loan periods for movies!
Students: 3 items for 1 week
Faculty: 10 items for 1 week
All: One renewal allowed Check out movies on A-Level

Checking Out

Homewood Students:

Your JCard is your library card!
Use it to check out materials, for printing, photocopying, and the vending machines.

Login online with your barcode to renew items, recall items, and view your account!

LexisNexis Academic Gets a Facelift ...and a Power Boost

You may notice a popular database has gotten a facelift and a host of new features. LexisNexis Academic connects you with over 6,000 news, business, and legal publications. Now it is quicker and easier, and you have more control over your results.

New this Fall:

- ⇒ Natural language searching
- ⇒ Sophisticated clustered results: filter by title, subject, industry & more
- ⇒ Direct export to RefWorks
- ⇒ Article-level linking
- ⇒ Linking between legal documents
- ⇒ News, legal, and business in one search

What can you find in LexisNexis Academic?
In addition to news, you can find television and radio transcripts, wire services, SEC filings, business and legal publications, and more!

Questions? Inquire at the Information Desk.

Extra Credit:
For what dates does LexisNexis Academic carry
The New Yorker?

The first correct answer emailed to asklib@jhu.edu wins a Café Q gift card.

Reserves @ MSE Library

Looking for your reserve readings?
Head to M-Level for the Reserves Desk. Looking online? Remember to get a password from your professor.

For direct links, go to:
<http://reserves.library.jhu.edu/>

You can now also view online reserves in the portal at <http://my.jhu.edu>

FLUSH WITH IDEAS?

Send your ideas for Law Notes topics to asklib@jhu.edu. If your idea or question is used, we'll send you a Café Q gift card.

Law Notes is an occasional publication of Research Services, Sheridan Libraries,
Johns Hopkins University.